One Day Orientation Workshop

28th September 2019

A one day workshop held on 28th September 2019 in Pune at Damle Prashala for Principals of Schools under Pandit Madan Mohan Malaviya National Mission on Teachers and Teaching (PMMNMTT) with the combined mission goal of 1) programmatic and scheme based interventions and 2) Project based activities. Workshop focused on the development of students, teachers and effective school administration based on technology through the understanding of various elements. Total 180 people attended this orientation workshop along with 4 resource persons.

Vice Chancellor of Savitribai Phule Pune University - Prof. (Dr.) Nitin Karmalkar, Prof. Sanjeev Sonawane – SOE Director at Savitribai Phule Pune University, Chairman of Maharashtra Mandal - Air Marshal Bhushan Gokhale, Sirkaryavah of Maharashtra Mandal - Dhananjay Damle, Principal of Shivrampant Damle Prashala - Ramesh Vasaikar, Sachiv of Suvarna Mahotsavi Samiti Damle Prashala - Rajendra Bhide, Chairman of Pune Jilha Mukhyadhyapak Sangha – Harishchandra Gaikwad were on the hand to open the Workshop Programme.

It was Prof. (Dr.) Nitin Karmalkar's very first time to address School Principals. He said to induce good qualities in students; universities and schools have to come together and work towards achieving it. He stressed on the language difference between English & Marathi as a wrong move by parents. He said, 'I have always been proud of my mother tongue. I have travelled the world but never faced any kind difficulty on the background of Marathi language'.

He also stressed on some very important life lessons. “Beneath this earth young warriors sleep” says the Kargil War Memorial. He said the same way Teachers role is very important- they have to invest their today to get better citizens tomorrow. ² - Passion & Patience should be in Teachers.

Air Marshal Bhushan Gokhale emphasized students as ‘Kendrabindu’. He quoted Ramdas Swami “Jasa shikshak asto tasach vidhyarthi ghadto” (The). According to him it’s a challenge for Teachers to be upgraded with the present times as it’s a digital age and the future generations are smart. He in the role of a teacher within 7 sorties gained the skills of flying instructor and transferred to his students. It’s the schools which will make our future generations better citizens of tomorrow.

The conference attendees had golden opportunity to hear keynote speakers Prof. Dr. Sanjeev Sonawane, Dr. Vivek Sawant –MD at Maharashtra Knowledge Corporation Limited : MKCL Superschool (Where everyone Super – Performs Naturally), Dr. Lalita Vartak – Principal at Aadarsh Comprehensive Shikshan va Sanshodha Mahavidhyalay, Pune delivered a lecture on ‘Shala Sidhi – Samruddha Shala’. And also Dinker Patil – Director of Maharashtra Rajya (Madhyamik and Uchha Madhyamik). At the beginning of each session participants were presented with topic information and question based discussion. Then following a structured process of information exchange discussed salient features of National education Policy, barriers to it and solutions to school governance.

K. Kasturirangan Committee has produced the policy document comprising of salient features of NEP 2019 and this was discussed in the orientation. The topics discussed here focused mainly on governance such as ‘to provide autonomy to all higher education institutions. Higher education institutions to be governed by independent boards with complete academic and administrative autonomy.’ Dr. Sonawane discussed and gave various examples in support of an autonomous body called National Research Foundation to be set up through an act of parliament. Favouring this move Dr. Sonawane said this will enhance and advance the education sector. Also Rashtriya Shiksha Aayog- apex body will be chaired by Prime Minister and eminent educationists and researchers.

Dr. Sanjeev Sonawane spoke on “Rashtriya Shaikshanik Dhoran” impacting today’s education. He also emphasized on various things such as ‘learning ability should be increased by thinking', 'vocational education – very significant in today's context', 'changing agent is TEACHER', 'MOTIVATION' & 'ATTITUDE' – our first step to understand and work towards achieving success and last but not the least 'Burdenless Education'.

“Super performance begins where ordinary performance ends” is said by Dr. Vivek Sawant- Managing Director of MKCL. He said “Sage-on the-stage” is no more a scene for teachers. Whereas “Guide on the site” is the present scenario. He focused on the difficulties noticed and faced by teachers:

- i) Classroom engagement
- ii) Slow Learners
- iii) Classroom management
- iv) School management
- v) Crowded classroom
- vi) Mobile phones brought by students
- vii) Emerging 'psycho-socio-techno spheres' of students

For all the above difficulties, MKCL's Superschool has brought software which will:

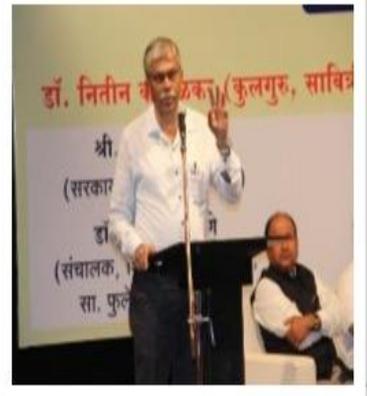

- i) Encourages classroom engagement
- ii) Lively classroom
- iii) Facilitates co-learning of students
- iv) Student centric & joyful learning experiences
- v) Designing of Assessment

He said “Sage-on the-stage” is no more a scene for teachers. Whereas “Guide on the site” is the present scenario.

Dr. Lalita Vartak's session 'Shala siddhi- Samruddha shala' focused on the Kothari commission's recommendations, 3 agencies of accreditation for Higher Education, School Infrastructure, Shaley netrutva va vyavasthapan, Shikshak kaamgiri va vyavasayik vikasache vyavasthapan, samaveshan aarogya va suraksha.

She quoted, 'Excellence is not an act, but a habit'.

During the workshop, attendees shared opinions, thoughts and suggestions for consideration of excellence in school governance. Dinker Patil-Director of Maharashtra Rajya gave solutions to problems of School administration and gave a lot of information in the question answer session.
